

What's for Dinner? Sunday Linky #26

It's Sunday afternoon and you hear –

“What's for Dinner?”

We've all heard it – and then we realize, what IS for dinner? And with the holidays behind us, Spring just ahead, and cold nights for soup – here is the place to get AND share those delicious recipes!

Please join us!

Well here is a place for ideas!

So please join us and share your helpful recipes and menu ideas – All meal related, family-friendly posts are invited! Feel free to post linkys that are food related as well!

Here are some of my favorite posts from last week!

A brand new guest at our party last week, Recipes and Ramblins with the tumbleweed contessa stopped by and shared this amazing Meyer Lemon Meringue Pie! I can't wait to try this one!

And who can resist a good shrimp recipe? Not me!

Ramblings of a (bad) Domestic Goddess shared Tantalizing Tempura Taste Treats – shrimp and vegetables in a pretty easy tempura!

This recipe caught my eye because Scalloped potatoes was a tradition for Sunday night dinner at my house! The Silver Foodie shared a recipe that she made with her mom! And it sounds perfect! Scalloped New Potatoes and Leeks –

I'll return the favor.

And now it's your turn....

There are a few rules –

Please leave a comment for your host! When we comment, we not only help our blogs to grow, we help each other with great ideas! And every post that leaves a comment gets pinned!

Only food related posts! Recipes, food review, even linky parties -If it is about food, please share it!

Please visit two or three other posts and comment on them.

Note: By linking up you are giving the Lazy Gastronome to use your posts as future features on the blog. And thank you!

So let's party!!
