“The hosts of Idea Box are happy to introduce two new guest hosts for November! Please help us welcome our new blogging pals, Iryna and Helen!”

About Idea Box Link Party:

Idea Box is a new weekly link party for bloggers to share all of their creative posts—recipes, home decor, DIY projects, gardening tips, good advice... Whatever your creative heart desires. The link party is open from Thursday at 6am until Monday at 6am.

Make sure you check out the hostess' blogs to see what they've been up to!

Now, onto this week's party!

Simple Party Rules:

1. Please follow ALL of the party hosts in at least one way.
2. Only link up personal content– there are no rules about the content, as long as it's family friendly!
3. Please visit at least three other links and leave comments/make new friends. It isn't a party if you link and run!!
4. Please link back to one of our blogs or grab our button below for your site.
5. You can add up to three new links each week–please don't link up posts you've shared with us before. Remember that by linking up, you are giving the hosts permission to use your images/content on our blogs and/or social media. Proper credit and links will always be given. The link up starts every Thursday at 6am EST, and closes the following Monday.
