

FrankBurgers – What?

My husband had a dream he was standing at the grill cooking the most unusual burgers for the family. He had a name for them, but couldn't recall it – so he said, in the dream, they were “Frankly good” – SO

What do you get when you mix hot dogs in ground beef?

What you need:

- 1 pound of lean ground beef
- 2 very long or 4 regular sized hot dogs (I used low fat Turkey dogs)
- Salt and pepper
- Buns
- Condiments

How to Do it:

Super simple!! Cut the hot dogs into small pieces. In a large bowl, mix the beef and the dogs with a little salt and pepper.

Toss these puppies on the grill and cook to the desired doneness – we like medium rare.

Put on a bun with your favorite condiments (mustard and onion of course!)

Enjoy the best of the barbecue all in one bite!

Makes about 4 servings
